On location worldwide

oha communication has become a partner of the international agency network Comvort

Stuttgart (Germany)/Barcelona (Spain), July 6, 2016 – oha communication has expanded its range of services for globally operating clients. The Stuttgart consultancy for international PR has joined the Comvort network. With more than 950 specialized agencies of all disciplines, experts support on-site communication in more than 40 countries.

oha communication has been advising highly specialized companies in the process of internationalization since 2007. The aim is on the one hand to support the headquarters in developing strategies, themes and channels for the positioning and communication in new markets. On the other hand, it is important to optimally ensure the implementation and control of the activities on site.

"Being part of Comvort allows us a fast and direct access to creative minds all around the world," says Oliver Frederik Hahr of oha communication. "Experience in international projects and strong implementation skills in diverse disciplines characterize the partners of the Comvort Group – this mixture offers the best conditions for on-site communication that is tailored to the individual customer's needs."

"We are pleased to welcome oha communication as a new family member," says Karl Jacobi, founder and president of Comvort in Barcelona. "For 27 years we have been bringing communication experts together from around the world to share knowledge and to create added value based on long-term relationships. As an agency for international PR, oha communication fits perfectly with our philosophy and is an asset to the network."
